

Rock/Jam

Bio

Wolf is a rock-and-roll jam band from Bowling Green, Kentucky, bringing a fresh voice to the scene with an unexpected twist. Wolf isn't your typical jam band. Instead of the usual guitar-driven formula, the flute and fiddle take the lead, creating a bold, melodic energy that's equal parts rootsy and otherworldly.

Their sound fuses bluegrass, psychedelic, progressive, and southern rock to create a high-voltage blend of rhythm and exploration. Wolf's performances are immersive journeys... weaving intricate melodies, tight grooves, and mind-bending electronic textures to create a sound that's both familiar and wildly original.
